UCLA Human Relations Course Set at North

Supervisors, union officials, administrators, teachers, social workers, and others interested in personnel problems may attend a special course in Applied Human Relations planned by University Extension at UCLA.

Dr. Charlyne T. Herbert, chief of clinical psychology at the Veterans Administration Hospital, Long Beach, will instruct the course, which meets Wednesday from 7 to 9:30 p.m. starting Feb. 6, at North High School, 3620 W. 182nd St., for the convenience of South Bay area residents.

Sections of the same course of 18 weekly meetings are scheduled for UCLA and Orange County.

It may be applied toward the Certificate in Industrial Relations. Enrollment is limited, so early registration is recommended.

University Extension spring catalogues and registration forms are available on request to UCLA, Los Angeles 24 (272-8911, station 3721).

Main Street Ban On Parking Voted

Parking will be prohibited from 7 a.m. to 5 p.m. on school days along a 120-foot section on the easterly side of Main Street near 223rd Street, the Board of Supervisors has ruled.

Supervisor Burton W. Chace said the action was taken to facilitate discharge and pickup of high school students.

"When the roll is called up yonder it will take a long time to get through the Smiths."

Scouts Busy Selling Ducats to Exposition

Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, and Explorers in the Los Angeles area are even busier than usual these days, selling tickets and preparing for the Scouting Exposition set for Feb. 15-24 at Shrine Exposition Hall in conjunction with the Sports, Vacation, and Travel Show.

The ticket sale, which began Jan. 12 and will continue until Feb. 10, shows early indications of being the biggest of its kind in local Scouting annals, according to Scout officials.

The Cubs, Scouts, and Explorers are selling Exposition tickets for $1.

These tickets will not only give the bearer entry to the Scouting Exposition, but will admit him free to the Sports, Vacation, and Travel Show next door. Tickets to the latter show, bought through other channels, will cost $1.50.

THE SCOUTING Exposition will be held in a "Big Top" circus tent adjoining the Shrine Exposition Hall. A giant demonstration area will permit thousands of boys to take part in the Exposition, demonstrating the many skills and activities connected with Scouting.

There will be a recurring stage show, pet shows, and booth displays of all phases of Scouting activities. Among the demonstrations scheduled: Indian dancing, pinewood derby races, a bowling tournament, photo contest, and plug casting contest.

THE ENTIRE proceeds of the $1 Scout pre-Exposition ticket sale will go to benefit local Scouting. Cubs, Scouts, and Explorers will be vying not only for money to support

Youth Group Will Present Folk Stories

The Liberal Religious Youth of the Pacific Unitarian Church will present a program of folk tales at 10:30 a.m., Sunday, at Miraleste School.

The program will include universal folk stories dating from the 5th century BC to the 1930s. Musical accompaniment to the guitar will be supplied by members of the LRY.

Tales to be presented are: "How the Toothache came into the World," "Journey to Toulouse of Animals that had Colds," "Callisto and Areas," "Sourstone," "Shinglebliss," "Dust Bowl," "The Town Mouse and Country Mouse," and "Disowned Student."

STUDENTS participating in the program are: Sandra McGee, Paul Mannick, Lei Sciocia, Bob Haut, Debbie Rodman, Maxine Mallni, Greg Robinson, and Steve Karbo.

LRY consists of high school age students and is under the direction of John Sinclair. Miraleste School is located at the intersection of Via Canada and Palos Verdes East in San Pedro.
